SINCE 2004

Everything Next Tech Group creates is designed with you in mind and Nextview Technology follows the same footprint as being an integral part of this multidisciplinary group. Today, Nextview Technology is India's leading electronic manufacturer of Televisions, Air Purifiers, and Air Conditioners who is pushing the boundaries of innovation with each passing day. Being the founding father, Mr. Nishith Mirani nourished the brand with his expertise and made Nextview Technology a successful venture which aims to deliver high quality, cutting-edge and affordable electrical products for the home that offer an unparalleled experience to customers.

For decades, Nextview has been at the forefront in the segment of consumer electronics by delivering advanced solutions of international standards. By working tirelessly on the research and development, Nextview Technology is raising the bar across our industry, and proudly pioneering new innovations. The efficient coordination of our support team and strong pan India network of branch offices, distributors, dealers, and service centers keep the customer's needs on the top and satisfy them beyond expectation. A strong promoter of the Government of India's Make-in-India initiative, Nextview manufacturing has a state of art plant in India and takes pride in being a 'Made in India' solution.

Nextview ceaselessly draws inspiration from people's journey and strives continuously to develop a better experience with state-of-the-art products. We are determined to offer a wide range of 'Best-in-Class' TV, AC and Air Purifier products & solutions that redefine the way of living across generations.

VISION

Nextview Technology aspires to be a leader in developing groundbreaking innovations for home electronic products. We are committed to providing solutions that help customers to live better. We wish to deliver values, benefits, promises and personality through Nextview Products which simplify your lives and provide an unmatched customer experience.

MISSION

Nextview is on a mission to create excellent home solutions by harnessing innovations. Within the framework of law, and with pride in ethical values, we wish to benefit our employees and society at large through responsible business practice.
