Redefining your Television Experience

SINCE 2004

As a part of multidisciplinary Next Tech Group, Nextview Technology has created a sense of excitement and ripples of interest in the smart LED TV industry with its superior technology and impeccable performance at par with international brands. Offering an enviable range in LED TV segment, Nextview is growing with leaps and bound since its inception. Founded by Mr. Nishith Mirani, having dual academic qualification of MCSE & Business Management, Nextview Technology heavily benefits from his deep technical and administration skills, vast knowledge and years of experience.

With its young and dynamic leadership & refreshing vision towards innovation Nextview is moving forward showing streaks of growth and expansion. Nextview manufactured at state of art plant in India, strongly exhibits world-class excellence and pride of being 'made in India' solution. We are committed for achieving highest levels of customer's satisfaction – by providing the assuring quality, quickest services & economical client-friendly solutions. Since the foundation, the group has believed in building trust and association rather than selling products and thus, in the digital smart display domain; Nextview is creating its distinct identity and emerging as one of the most successful brands.

Vision

"NextView aims to revolutionize the TV watching experience by making it smarter, richer and more vibrant. In the Smart LED Display domain, Nextview is ready to herald ground-breaking initiatives.

Ceaselessly working towards becoming a globally reckoned brand; Nextview through continuous evolution in its technology and innovation wishes to be synonymous with trust, quality and passion for the excellence in the Digital World.

Mission

"To establish an association built on trust, satisfaction, excellent service with our clients and foster a mutually rewarding, value driven atmosphere at work place for employees and vendors."
